2035
All young patients will be provided with genetic screening enabling the best possible targeted treatment for their cancer

2040
All young cancer patients will have access to youth inclusive world-class clinical trials

2045
Over 97% of young cancer patients will survive and their quality of life and health after cancer will be improved

2022
Cancer Hub, a collaboration between Canteen, Camp Quality and Redkite, launches to help families impacted by cancer more easily access the practical and emotional support they need

2018-2021
Canteen increases its reach, now supporting 20% of newly impacted young people across Australia

2018
Canteen launchs the Parenting Through Cancer service, providing free counselling, expert advice and resources to parents across Australia

2015
Canteen launches a campaign to raise awareness of the frequently overlooked impact that cancer has on young people

2016
Canteen successfully secures Government commitment to provide funding to run national clinical trials for young people with high mortality cancers

2016-2017
Canteen publishes six peer-reviewed papers and makes 27 presentations at scientific conferences around the world

2014
Canteen launches Canteen Connect a world leading online support service, providing counselling information and peer support to young Australians 24/7

2010
Canteen starts offering face to face counselling services to enhance the power of peer support

2009-2013
Youth Cancer Services launches in hospitals across Australia offering specialist, age specific support for 15-25 year-olds with cancer

1985
Six young cancer patients were brought together by a group of passionate health professionals to create Canteen, the "Teenage Cancer Patients Society"

1994
National Bandanna Day is born. Today 6 million bandannas have been sold and have raised $30million+ for Canteen

2001
Canteen expands services to support young people whose parents have cancer or have died from cancer

canteen
cando family

REGISTERED CHARITY
acnc.gov.au/charityregister